Jerald (Jerry) Eppy passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family on February 2, 2024. He was born May 4, 1938, in Canton, Ohio to Ben and Ruth Eppy. He is survived by his wife Judy (Weiser) after a remarkable 65 years. Jerry is also survived by his loving children, Joe and Fran Eppy and Marci and Steve Schwartz. Jerry retired in 1997 as President of Eppy's Chevrolet in Canton Ohio and moved to South Florida. He was a past President of Shaaray Torah Synagogue and Canton Jewish Community Federation. He served on boards of the Canton Ex Newsboys Association, United Jewish Appeal, Young Leadership and the J. Babe Stearn Community Center. He was a lifelong Mason. Active in the Pro Football Hall of Fame parade, Jerry worked tirelessly so Enshrinees and Celebrities could have convertibles every year.

Jerry was an enthusiastic member of Arrowhead Country Club in Canton Ohio and joined Boca Woods Country Club in Boca Raton when he retired. He loved to golf and enjoyed countless social engagements with his wife Judy. His greatest pleasure was his family, and he had the pleasure of taking all his grandsons on many summer vacations.
