Hal Bernstein

MAY 14, 1958 - MAY 6, 2024

Hal David Bernstein, 65, of Miami Florida, passed away unexpectedly on Monday, May 6, 2024.

Born in Manhattan, New York, he brought warmth every place he called home, including his years in Howard Beach, where he fostered lifelong friendships.

Beginning his educational journey at the University of South Florida, he found his professional path in sales, particularly at B & D Precision Tools and Arabel, Inc.

Hal took pleasure in connecting with clients and staying updated on their lives and families.

An avid sports enthusiast, he loved participating in running, basketball, tennis, and paddleball, finding joy in Florida's year-round opportunities for outdoor activities. He was a Knicks and Jets fan and loved to talk about sports.

He'll be fondly remembered for his loyalty, compassion, and love for jazz music, evident in the artist's and albums he cherished.

Hal's kindness and empathy touched many lives, leaving behind a legacy of love and happiness. Hal is reunited in peace with his mother, Phyllis Bernstein. He is survived by his father, Judah Bernstein of Boca Raton, brother Jeffrey Bernstein (wife) Jennifer of New York, and former partner Elizabeth Barrie of Miami.

A visitation to celebrate his life will be held on Monday, May 13, at 1:45pm at Beth Israel Memorial Chapel 5808 W. Atlantic Ave, Delray Beach FL 33484.

So sorry for your loss. I just found out today about Hal. I have been a business associate with Hal since 1984. When he would call he always called me Uncle Bill, we are both the same age and been in the same industry all our lives we would share life's journey's. He was such a caring person i will really miss his calls. William Fosmer

Dear family and friends of Hal, I am so saddened and shocked to hear of Hal's passing. He was a good dude! Though we didn't see each other much we grew up together in the window covering business and it was Hal who always stayed in touch! I'm going to miss his phone calls, his enthusiasm and most of all his friendship. Hal didn't share many photos but when he did, I knew they included the people most important in his life. My warmest thoughts and prayers go out to Hal, his family and his many friends.

My sincerest condolences to all those who knew and loved the dear man that I considered a friend and an essential asset to the industry in which we both have invested our lives. Hal has been a consistent ray of sunshine, encouragement, and a wealth of wisdom, that he generously shared with me for over 30 years. I share your sadness and I will remember you in my prayers as we all learn to adjust to life without our much-cherished Hal Bernstein. Greg Fitzpatrick
