My aunt Ellie was always been an inspiration for me. She lived a life truly well lived. I have taken to heart and will always remember her wisdom of staying positive and engaging with life to the fullest extent possible. I will greatly miss our conversations about many things including our family heritage and our mutual interest in Jewish affairs. Larry Morell

Randy, Eric, and Ken, Please accept my deepest sympathy on the loss of your beloved mother. I saw her every Thursday for the last ten years . A strong-minded lady, one that I adored, and we spoke over many issues. She told me she looked forward to those Thursdays every week, and I did too! Ellie, to me was not just another client, she was family . I was shocked to come back from vacation to find out she had passed away. RIP, Beloved Ellie ❤️❤️
