Jane V. Arenson (née Cote), aged 75, passed away from a long illness on June 22, 2024 in Cedar Rapids, IA. She was born on 7 February 1949 in Auburn, Maine. Jane lived a vibrant and fulfilling life marked by her adventurous and inquisitive spirit. The primary focus of Jane's life was her beloved family. Jane and her devoted husband Jim had a special loving relationship and they were inseparable partners and best friends for 57 years.

Jane treasured each of her three daughters. She visited each frequently, and if she could not be with them in person, she talked by phone as possible. If you were a friend of Jane's, you knew it because she loved you and you knew it.

Jane was a beacon of energy and joy, always seen with a smile that lit up the room. She had a wonderful sense of humor. She was a fabulous cook. An avid traveler, she loved exploring new destinations, indulging in her passion for reading and puzzles, engaging in competitive games of tennis, cards and Scrabble. Jane took pleasure in quilting, a hobby that not only showcased her artistic talents but brought warmth and beauty into the lives of those she loved. She loved her life, and if something went wrong, she did not sulk or complain—she was stoic.
