It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Maria Jackson a beloved mother, grandmother (Mimi) , sister, and friend, who peacefully departed this life on December 1, 2024 at the age of 76. Born on May 23, 1948 in Lima, Peru. Maria was the cornerstone of her family and a beacon of love, strength, and compassion. She spent her life nurturing those around her with boundless generosity and an unwavering commitment to family values. Mimi was known for her warm smile, unyielding kindness, and a heart that welcomed everyone. She found joy in spending time with her loved ones. Mimi's role as a mother, mother-in-law and a grandmother was her foundation of her life. Her children are who meant the world to her. A devout, spiritual believer, Catholic/Christian, Maria/ Mimi lived her life guided by her deep faith and belief in the kindnesses and goodness of others. She touched countless lives with her wisdom and quiet strength, leaving an undeniable mark on everyone fortunate enough to know her. Maria is survived by her loving children, Leslie Jackson and Brian Jackson, loving daughter-in-law Chantelle (Oxholm) Jackson; and her cherished grandchildren, Lexi, Cole, Kobe. She also leaves behind family members and close friends. She is reunited in eternal rest with her parents and predeceased loved ones. In lieu of Mimi's memory the family requests the privacy of their time and to reflect on the goodness and kindness of the people in this world. In Maria's honor, let us reflect on her lifelong dedication to love and care she had for her family and her life. Her legacy of love and kindness will live on in the hearts of all who knew her.
