Jeanie, Alexis and Glenn my sincere condolences on Alan's passing. I am so shocked and saddened for all of you. Alan was always such a thoughtful, caring and loving family man. You were all so fortunate to have him as a part of your life. Together may you give each other strength and courage during this very difficult time. With much sadness.... Sincerely Pat Sirowich

Jeanne, Alexis and Glenn....Kate and I are truly, truly saddened by Alan's passing.He was a first rate gentleman, a smart, kind and decent human being and a friend.He leaves a legacy of helping others.We are both very grateful to Alan for his longtime financial advice that has allowed and will continue to allow us to live a quality life.We also think back to all the dinners and lunches together with Jeanne and Alan over the years as we remember the laughter, fellowship and good cheer. He was one of the "good guys" taken too early who will certainly will be missed.Kate and Jack Gredinger

I have known Alan since I was a teenager in Mattapan. He was a handsome mild manner kid always with a smile and when I would see him as an adult that trait hadn't changed. Rest in peace Alan. Lovingly, Freddie Blechner
