I loved Sandy! She was so much fun and one of the kindest persons i know, We met in Cairo, Egypt and she immediately made me feel welcome to her group. We loved to go to the markets and shop. I always got a kick out of the way she bargained: she always would say if she didn't want to buy, "Well, I'll have to ask the Mister"...and we knew Ben didn't really have a say! Lynn Walker

Our thoughts and prayers are with the entire Zupan family. Sandy was a wonderful person and a great friend. We have been blessed with our times together throughout the last 25 years including various trips with her and Ben throughout the world. We considered both part of our family and everyone should take great joy in the memories shared with them. Sandy will remain in all of our hearts as we reflect on those memories of her. Take comfort in knowing that she is at peace now.Lex & Jill van Brero

There are not words in the (old) dictionary to describe your mother. A very dear and special friend first. I first met her in Cairo at "a Cairo Petroleum Wives" meeting. She was already living there and we became immediate friends because we both played bridge! Sandy was an amazing woman, kind, loving, generous, and giving, She was always there for everyone. She and your dad were loved by the community in Maadi, Cairo, and as well where ever she was. The ground she walked on was Blessed and you,as your family were blessed. RIP my dear and special friend.
