Obituary for Roslyn Kornreich Lazar

Lazar, Roslyn Kornreich, spouse of Herman Kornreich (deceased) and Leo Lazar (deceased), age 98 of Parkland, FL, Delray Beach, FL and White Plains, NY, passed away peacefully on January 15th, 2025. Roslyn is survived by her loving children, Maurice Kornreich (Margie) and Alison Lubart (Lenny); Cherished grandmother of Jordan (Erica), Chad (deceased), Jeffrey and Jessica (Ernest); Adored great-grandmother of Ashton, Marlee, Austin, Braydon, Isabella, Christian, Thomas, Chloe, Avari and Preston. Devoted sister of Lori Fine Block and Estelle Denton (deceased).

Roz lived a wonderful long life. She always attributed that to her 5 o'clock Dewars Scotch as she enjoyed watching the sun set behind her home. She enjoyed golf, going to the theater, opera, bridge, gardening (she had a green thumb), and listening to the classic singers, especially Sinatra. She was happiest when surrounded by her adoring family.

Graveside services will be held at 11:00am, on Sunday, January 19th, 2025, at Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, 80 Commerce Street, Hawthorne New York, 10532. Shiva will be held Tuesday and Wednesday, January 21st & 22nd from 6-9 pm, at the home of Alison and Lenny Lubart, 1848 Monte Carlo Way, Coral Springs, FL 33071

Those wishing to honor Roslyn with a memorial contribution are kindly encouraged to consider The American Heart Association.

Barbara Hartley sent a virtual gift in honor of Roslyn.

When I was a kid Aunt Roz would let me try on all of her shoes. I can still remember opening up every box in the closet and admiring all of them. As an adult I lived in the same community as Aunt Roz. I would go over often for dinner and I always felt we had a special connection. She (and Leo) would play 3 handed bridge with me. She was a classy lady. She always had a smile on her beautiful face and I never heard her say anything negative. She will be missed.
