Sharon Cooke posted:

Dear Sharon, my entire family is deeply saddened to have lost our beloved and revered "Uncle Joseph". We had a long and intense friendship. That's why we know how much he loved his wife and children. In our numerous Skype conversations that we had up to January 15th, he repeatedly emphasized how proud he was of you and how much he admired Sharon and Andy. The fact that it is now a farewell forever and that we will never be able to see or speak to him again is a thought that all of us do not want to accept. All the more I would like to thank you for giving us the opportunity to take part in the funeral ceremonies and to say goodbye to him together with you. With much love Wolfgang
