Joey Pezzuto lit a candle in honor of Mitchell.

Mitch was one of a kind. The love he had for Evan was as strong as love can get. He was always a pleasure to be around. He helped make Evan the man he is today. I see a lot of compassion and care in Evan that his father instilled in him from day one. I grew up with Evan and we have always considered each other brothers. Mitch was a father figure in my life. He would provide for me as he would Evan. He would make us lunches, dinners, snacks etc. without hesitation. He would give us rides anywhere we wanted to go and would be there as much as he could given his work schedule. He was always a welcoming man and it was a lot of fun growing up with him in our lives. He had an unforgettable laugh that Evan and I will cherish deeply. Mitch, Thank you for giving me the best friend I still have to this day and thank you for everything you've done for him and me throughout the years. I love you and will miss you deeply. We will honor you the way you would want us to by being providers and caretakers for our families. Until we meet again.
