Isnara Bien Aime

OCT 1, 1942 - MAY 12, 2025

Isnara Bien Aime, affectionately known as "Nara", was born on October 1, 1942 in Saint Marc, Haiti, to the late Magressa and Joseph Bien Aime. She was one of eleven siblings raised in Saint Marc, where she learned the art of farming- a skill she carried with her throughout her adult life.

Isnara was blessed with seven children: Marie Michelle, Firmane, Fenoche, Bertide, Micheline, and Marguerite. After the passing of her husband, she chose not to remarry but instead dedicated herself to raising her children alone. Despite the heartache of losing four of her children, she persevered and continued to nurture the three who remained, working tirelessly to provide for them and ensure they received an education.

Known for her kindness and generosity, Isnara was a truly hospitable woman, who always found ways to give to others. She exemplified strength and residence, serving as an amazing role model for her children and a devoted mother.

Isnara is survived by her children and grandchildren:

Children: Fenoche Saintelian, Marie Michelle S. Debrosse (Huberman Debrosse) and Firmane Fils Aime (Michelet Fils Aime).

Grandchildren: Manoucheka Louis Jean, Stevenson Charles, Taina Fils Aime and Mitchey Fils Aime.

Other Grandchildren: Fabienne Dameus (Darwin Felix), Manoucheka Louis Jean (Brunot Guison), Stevenson Charles and Family, Taina Fils Aime (Emmanuel Matei) and Mitchey Fils Aime.

Great Grandchildren: Leonard Matei, Gabriel Matei, Brayden Jeremiah, Chadd Charles, Maclwrence Debrosse, Mitchel Kyle Debrosse, Marvin Noah Debrosse, Darby Wood Dameus Felix, Darnell Dameus Felix, Darlens Dameus Felix, Dalexander Dameus Felix, Bradley Brunot, Briana Brunot and Hayden Brunot.

A Viewing will be held on Friday, May 30, 2025 from 6pm- 9pm at Beth Israel Memorial Chapel with a Church Service at Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses at 11 am and a burial at Palm Beach
