My heart goes out to the Schulman family. Losing both amazing parents in 1.5 years has to be heart breaking. Myra was a gem! She loved her kids and grand kids! She was a straight shooter, loved the beach, always smiling, (I think from years of Paul's jokes!), sweet, kind, great athlete, full of knowledge and ALWAYS available for a chat about life and gave me great advise over 17 years of our friendship. Always up for a game of golf! A ton of fun in Florida and STL over the years and LOTS of Cardinal baseball fun! I will miss her dearly and am disappointed that I couldn't be in Florida today. I loved Myra and she will always be in my heart. RIP my dear friend. ❤️ Picture from March 2025.
