Mindy Weinstein, 66, of Queens, New York passed away on January 27, 2026. She will be fondly remembered for her warmth, compassion, and humor, as well as the love she showed to family, friends, and strangers alike.

So sorry to hear of Mindy's passing. This was far too soon. She was one of the most generous people I've ever known. Thinking of your family at this time.

Mindy showed up, again and again, because she believed in doing the right thing. I knew her through voter registration drives and protests, standing side by side in service of our shared commitment to civic duty and helping Democrats make change. She didn't just believe in democracy—she worked for it. I'm grateful to have stood with her, and I'll carry her spirit forward every time I show up.

What do I say about Mindy, my very best friend for over 50 years. How do I narrow down all the memories, conversations, good times, sad times, countless hours, months, years we spent together. We went to junior high school, where we met, high school and college together. I was her maid of honor and she was mine. Our marriages, our families, our children. There is no one memory, there are too many wonderful cherished ones. She was a true best friend in every way possible. I will sum it up with her last birthday text to me, "wishes for a very happy birthday to my dearest friend. Only the best for you. I love you so". My last text from her was on January 26, 2026 at 11am, "stay warm and watch Netflix ❤️" I will always cherish our deep friendship and memories and will miss my dearest best friend. Love always, Debbie ❤️❤️❤️
