For the past four years, I have spent Passover with Larry as my date at the home of Carol Mosgkowitz. We drove separately and gave each other a little kiss when we arrived last year when Larry wasn't feeling so well he finally allowed me to pick him up and take him home. Passover will never be the same for me without him being there I will truly miss my friend.

When I was a kid, I started calling Larry 'Mr. Grossman' - kind of Eddie Haskell style. One time, Larry was very, very kind to me when I was very upset. Thus he became 'My Mr. Grossman'. Thank you, Larry, for your kindness that day. You'll always be "My Mr. Grossman". Rest in peace. ❤️
