“ Abe Isenberg was one in a million. I got to know and work with him during his time in DC. He was my boss but more important my mentor and friend. Rest well

“ Brother Abie was my hero growing up. Until he went on to college, we shared the same bedroom. I can remember the times when I saw a horror movie and couldn't sleep, Abie was always there to make sure I was safe. In later years as adults, we were partners in business. During the summer Mike, Jeff and Ricky stayed with Judy and me as our support staff. I think Abie wanted to give them insight to the business world. Abe and I shared golf and fishing times. Once when he took me fishing, I slipped into the water and he “fished me out”. Boy did our mom give him the business when we got home. The best recall were the nights he “baby sat” me and our favorite dinner was winnies and beans, what he lacked in care taking was made up in his cooking skills. Many times working in New York, I looked forward to staying at their home in Rye. For Judy and I we really enjoyed our times with him and Jeanie at Atlantic City. He will always be Abie to me and I miss him, “keep collecting those coins like you did at Dad's store, on your next adventure”. Brother Dave

“ My college roommate at PSU. As freshmen, Abe fixed me up with a girl from Houtzdale. Abe always laughed because the girl kept calling me Morris although I was Marshall! A great guy!

“ Uncle Abe will be greatly missed by myself as well as my husband Dave and our son Sage. I am very grateful that he was able to meet Sage before his passing. RIP Uncle Abe. We love you.

“ When I was a little girl visiting my grandparents, Lena and Morris Isenberg, in Houtzdale, PA, I was always excited when I heard that Abbie and Jeannie would be stopping in to say hello. It was decades ago, but I remember the warm smile and friendly, loving greetings I would get. I am sad to hear of Abbie's passing and of not getting to share contact over these many years. He was always in my heart and thoughts. Sending love and condolences to my cousins and all affected by his transition, Melissa (Roberts)

“ Abie and I went back to the early 1950's when he came to Philipsburg for Sunday School and services. Then, we were members of Phi Sigma Delta fraternity at Penn State, met frequently during his visits to State College for football games, and then during his days living in Washington DC for dinners and activities. Abie introduced me to his friend Jay Jaffe and thought we should go into the consulting business as Jaffe & Jaffe! Most recently, we visited in State College during one of his trips North with Lilian.

I will miss his friendly smile and deep interest in enjoying life. My condolences to Lilian and the Isenberg family.
