Obituary for Alan Harvey Oremland

February 2, 1936-June 17, 2021

Alan Harvey Oremland passed away peacefully on June 17th, 2021, surrounded by family and friends. He was 85. Born to Murray and Rosalie Oremland and raised in Brooklyn, NY, Alan is survived by his wife of 61 years, Marilyn Oremland, his two sons and their wives, Leonard & Robin Oremland, Howard & Cari Oremland, and his brother, Ron Oremland. Alan was also an adored grandfather to Matthew, Rachel, Zachary, and Josh Oremland.

In brief and brevity interests, Alan was the consummate husband, father, grandfather and “shirt off his back” friend to all he touched in his remarkably joyous and fruitful time on this blue orb, a man who quietly (most of the time) enjoyed the simple things in life, love, and laughter. A successful private businessman in the retail textile trades, Alan most enjoyed spending time chasing (with determination) the little white ball in green pastures, listening to classical music, and studying history (he had a remarkable fondness for all things Winston Churchill, and was a frequent lecturer as an expert on this historic leader). Perhaps most impressive was Alan’s gift as a skilled craftsman...he spent countless hours constructing model planes (early in life) and intricate sailing ships, legacies that will stand the test of time for all to enjoy!

The family requests that if you are inclined to make donations in Alan’s honor, to do so with either of the following organizations or to those of your choice: · The Pap Corps, Champions for Cancer Research: <http://www.thepapscorp.org> · Living Independently Forever, Inc. <http://www.lifecapecod.org>

“ Dear Marilyn, Len, Howie and all of the Oremlands,

I knew Alan most of my life and only have wonderful memories of him. I used to walk into 169 Merrymount and the air would fill of pipe smoke and classical music and I knew he was probably sitting in the middle of the room listening to his quadraphonic Marantz stereo, nodding his head, with eyes closed hoping Lenny and I would shut up and take Howie outside. He was always so good to Lenny's friends and he's the only dad that called me Sap. I remember asking about Mid Life crisis when he stepped out of his blue Datsun Z sports car and instead of answering me, he just said (with an unlit cigar in his mouth), "Don't you just love it?". He was a classic to say the least. He made us all laugh with his youthful spirit and gave me (at least) two great playmates in Howie and Lenny while I was growing up and a friend for life in Lenny. I guess this sounds a bit like a eulogy for Alan because I feel he deserves one from Lenny's friends who really liked him as he was such a positive role model for all of us growing up. He was definitely one of the good guys. Rest in Peace, Alan and I'm happy you're no longer in pain.
