Robert will always be cherished for his life-long loyalty and devotion to Shirley. Throughout their lives together, they shared a love for collecting art glass, ballroom dancing, travel, theater, the ballet, and very importantly to Rob, playing bridge. After Rob's retirement he even attained Life Master status in the American Contract Bridge League. As well as playing bridge, Robert's tremendous intellect was fed by his love of reading and continuing education courses in many subjects. He also enjoyed sports cars, horse racing, detective stories, great bread, and chocolate ice cream. He took great pride in his children and grandchildren and all of their accomplishments.

A memorial service will be planned some time in the future. In lieu of flowers, donations in Robert's memory made to your favorite charity would be appreciated.

“ Uncle Rob delegated me to park the car at the airport in our mad rush to make the plane for Seth's wedding. I felt very good, being judged as competent in a mini-crisis, a rare thing (sadly) for a young woman. I have always felt warmed by that memory. Thank you, Uncle Rob.
