Seymour Krinsky passed away in Lake Worth, Florida, on Father's Day, June 20, 2021 at the age of 92 at the home of his daughter surrounded by his family. Seymour was born and grew up in Brooklyn, New York. He lived in Brooklyn with his mother, father, grandparents, aunts and uncles and other extended family members. He attended Brooklyn Tech High School where he excelled at sports earning a place on the All Scholastic Men's Soccer Team. Seymour met his wife, Irene Stern, the love of his life, at Banner Lodge in Connecticut and was married soon thereafter. They were happily married for just over 50 years raising their three children in Massapequa, New York. He was a generous man who was well-liked and a respected member of his community. He served as President of his synagogue, Congregation Beth El, and also helped found the Massapequa Soccer League. After retirement, he and his wife moved to Boca Raton, Florida where they enjoyed golf, travel and country club living until his wife Irene passed away in January 2004. Seymour was lucky to find love again and at age 85, he married Esther Levitan.
